

PERFORMANCE

Peter and the wolf

Sergei Prokofiev

Synopsis

Presentation This is a symphonic story by Sergei Prokofiev where each character is represented by an instrument and a characteristic melody. This is a string-puppet show, where the characters were designed by the illustrator Roser Capdevila.

At the beginning of the show, an actor introduces the characters and the instrument that will represent each one of them. During the Story, the puppets illustrate the actions narrated by the actor and describe the music. The characters are as follows:

Bird - flute

Duck - oboe

Cat - clarinet

Grandfather - fagot

Wolf - trumpets

Peter - strings

Hunters - percussion
